

About Us

We treat our clients like family.

La Costa Rentals and Property Management is conveniently located in Nosara, Costa Rica, steps from hamlet's shopping district. Visit our office and then stop by surf shops, cantinas and galleries. Or take a walk to the ocean, just a few yards away. Let us help you find a property, stock it with groceries and provide tour information all while you soak in the beauty and serenity of the jungle.

Our team provides first-class customer services to both homeowners in Nosara who are interested in renting their properties or property management services as well as to those visiting the area looking for a luxurious vacation rental to call home during their stay.
